About Alabama Cardiovascular Group (ACG)

The physicians and clinical support team of ACG are dedicated to improving the lives of those impacted by heart disease. Our board certified cardiologists provide up-to-date clinical, preventative, diagnostic and interventional cardiology services. From general cardiology to the most complex interventional, electrophysiology and arrhythmia cases, ACG physicians have expertise in all aspects of cardiac as well as carotid, renal and peripheral vascular disease.

An affiliate of Grandview Health, ACG has nine locations in and around the Birmingham area. The main office is located inside Grandview Physicians Plaza on the Grandview Health campus, just east of I-459 on Highway 280.
